VOICE.

PIANO.

The first system of the musical score. The voice part is a single staff with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). It contains three measures of whole rests. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a common time signature. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some beamed sixteenth notes. There are four measures in total. Below the piano staves, there are four measures of figured bass notation, each starting with a 'Led.' and followed by an asterisk (*).

The second system of the musical score. The voice part continues with the lyrics "A - - loud the sea's - - - rude,". The piano accompaniment continues with the same melodic pattern. There is a crescendo (cresc.) marking above the voice staff and a piano (p) marking below the piano staff. The piano part includes a sixteenth-note figure with a '6' above it. Below the piano staves, there are four measures of figured bass notation, each starting with a 'Led.' and followed by an asterisk (*).

The third system of the musical score. The voice part continues with the lyrics "roll - ing voice Gives forth Bri - tan - - nia's name, - - - And". The piano accompaniment continues with the same melodic pattern. There is a forte (f) dynamic marking above the voice staff and a piano (p) marking below the piano staff. The piano part includes a sixteenth-note figure with a '6' above it. Below the piano staves, there are four measures of figured bass notation, each starting with a 'Led.' and followed by an asterisk (*).
